

PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY

FACULTY AND PROFESSIONAL STAFF ACCOMPLISHMENTS
November 2015

I. PUBLICATION

Ryan Long, Philosophy, College of Health Sciences and the Liberal Arts

Refereed Journal: "Ethics, Rights, and White's Antitrust Skepticism" Forthcoming in The Antitrust Bulletin.

II. CONFERENCES

Anne Bower, Biology, College of Science Health and the Liberal Arts

• Research Poster Presentation:

- Sulon, D., McFoy, S., Soroka, R., Nase, M & Bower, A. (2015) Challenge of Invasive Species in the Herbaceous Layer for Urban Forest Restoration. International Student Conference on Conservation, Center for Biodiversity, American Museum of Natural History, New York, NY. Oct 7-9th.
  - Discussant on Research Opportunities in Conservation at Non-Profits and National Wildlife Refuges at the International Student Conference on Conservation, Center for Biodiversity, American Museum of Natural History, New York, NY. Oct 7-9th.
  - Reviewer and Graduate Student Mentor: Provided oral and written feedback to Master's and PhD student on their thesis and dissertation research presentations.

III. EXHIBITIONS

Maribeth Kradel-Weitzel, Graphic Design Communication, Kanbar College of Design, Engineering and Commerce

- "Posters Against Ebola," AIGA Philadelphia SPACE Gallery (72 N. 2nd Street). This was AIGA Philadelphia's signature event for Design Philadelphia. Philadelphia, PA. October 8-16, 2015. Authored, curated, and contributed 2 posters, to this invitational poster project consisting of over 50 posters created to respond to the Ebola crisis.

IV. GRANT

V. OTHER PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Beena Patel, Occupational Therapy Assistant Studies, School of Continuing and Professional Studies.

- Classroom Study Presentation
  - Beena G Patel, Marianne Dahl Oral presentation, 'An FAQ folder and Alleviating Student Anxiety,' Pennsylvania Occupational Therapy Association, POTA 2015 Annual Conference