A custom specialization is a thematic grouping of three business, fashion or related courses. A custom specialization must be declared at the time of a transfer student's admission or at the time of a degree change in order to ensure the harvesting of relevant courses. The specialization must be approved by FMM program director or associate dean. The custom specialization option is available exclusively to external and internal transfer students. Please list the required courses below (must be 9 credits total). A written statement (prepared and signed by the student) must be attached to this form. The statement (150 word minimum) must demonstrate an informed decision concerning personal educational and career goals to be met with this specialization, and the programmatic outcomes of the specialization.
